

Zion Parish Notices

Thursday, 21st April

Issue 8 - 2016

On Sunday, 3rd April Samuel Gareth Kenealy was baptised at Zion Church. Samuel is pictured here with his parents Robert and Lyn (nee Taylor) and the extended Kenealy, Rogan and Taylor families. On the left his grandmother Alison (nee Rogan) and his Great-grandmother, Elsie Rogan. Over the past twelve months we have welcomed many new members of old Zion families to the church community.

Services

Sunday, 24th April

9.00am Holy Communion

10.30am Holy Communion

3.00pm Girls' Brigade Centenary Service

Wednesday, 27th April

10.30am Holy Communion

Sunday, 1st May

9.00am Holy Communion

10.30am Holy Communion

Contact - zionparish@gmail.com

Mothers' Union Talk

This evening Philip McKinley will speak to us about his experience of travelling in the Holy Land and his personal journey in this special part of the world. This promises to be a very good evening and all are welcome. Please join us at 8.00pm in the Parish Hall Meeting Room.

Next month there will be a Mothers' Union trip to Russborough House. Details of cost and time will follow in the coming weeks.

Congratulations Mervyn

Our 5th/6th Class teacher, Mervyn McDowell has been selected to represent Ireland in both sprint and Olympic races at the European Triathlon Championships in Lisbon at the end of May.

Wishing you the very best Mervyn, from all of your friends in Zion National School and Parish.

To respond to human need by loving service

On Monday, 25th April there will be a special Songs of Praise service at Dublin City University as part of the Come&C programme of events.

The service takes place in the Inter faith Centre, at DCU Glasnevin Campus at 5.15pm.

All are welcome.

Parking in the DCU Multi-story car park - €2 for 2 hours.

Annual Golf Outing

Friday 13th May

At Rathfarnham Golf Club

2.00pm -3.00pm start for golfers.

8.00pm dinner.

Booking sheets will be available shortly.

Contact Marty Nevin for details

