Bloomsday

The Ascot Gold Cup took place on June 16th 1904 and in Ulysses, Joyce tells the story of the great race that captured the imagination of the city on that day. The race featured the mighty 'Sceptre' the greatest filly of all time and the horse that carried the bets of a great many Dubliners. Coincidentally, the Gold Cup falls on June 16th this year and by way of celebrating both events, Actor Michael Judd will read an excerpt from 'Sceptre's Bloomsday' by Stephen Keane outside the Vintry in Rathgar Village at 5.00p.m.

Organised by Rathgar Business Association and Dublin City Council. Support your Village
