

Zion Parish Notices

Congratulations

We are delighted to welcome John Alexander as a Parish Lay Reader. He is a very welcome addition to the Zion team!

School news

A service took place in the Church on June 25th to bless the 6th class children leaving Zion and heading to secondary school. Song were sung, memories were shared and T-shirts were signed. We wish Ellie, Ruairí, Daisy, Joe, Zoë, Linh, Tadgh and Tara all the best. And a very special wish from the Parish to teacher Aileen Sexton who leaves Zion after 14 years of her teaching and her kindness. We wish David Edgar, Olga Powderly and the rest of the staff a peaceful and restful summer. They deserve it.

Parish Out and About

We had a lovely outing to the National Gallery of Ireland on Tuesday 23rd June to visit the 'William Blake: The Age of Romantic Fantasy' exhibition. Lots of detail to take in with many beautiful drawings and images with fantastical creatures. Definitely worth a visit before it closes on July 19th. We will continue our visits in September!

Lonely Items of Lost Property

These items are currently hanging in the space next to the parish kitchen. If you see something you recognise please arrange to collect it as we tend to do a clear out during the summer and make a donation to charity. Collections can be made after church on Sundays.

No July Church Review

A reminder that there is no Church Review for July. The next copy will be available in the Church in August.
